

Underclassmen & The Eating Clubs

Paul Draper '18 Class of 2018 Senator

Aleksandra Czulak '17 USC Vice-President

Ethan Marcus '18 U-Councilor

Project Description

This project seeks to facilitate and improve underclassmen's understanding of the Eating Clubs. To accomplish this, we will increase the amount of information available to underclassmen about the cost of Eating Clubs and the process for signing into or bickering an Eating Club, and we hope to make this information available to underclassmen much sooner in the year than has historically been the case. In the long term, we will increase underclassmen's access to the Eating Clubs by coordinating underclassmen events.

End Goals

Metrics and tangible results i.e. students affected

- Benefit the sophomore class by improving their Eating Club experience.
- Clarify and publicize information about how the sign-in and bicker processes work.
- Improve the timeline for distributing information about Eating Clubs and help underclassmen understand financial aid policies that relate to the Eating Clubs.

Logistics

When will the project team meet? Who will work on what part?

- Our project team will meet on Monday nights at 9PM in the USG Office
- Our team will work together to develop strategies that will improve the Eating Club experience for underclassmen.

Collaborators

Who can/will the team work with? i.e. administrators, student groups, offices

- The Sophomore Class Government
- The Inter-Club Council and Eating Club officers
- The Director of Undergraduate Financial Aid
- The Assistant Dean of Undergraduate Students—Liaison to the Eating Clubs
