Honor Committee New Member Appointment

Committee Chair: Dallas Nan

Date: February 5th, 2016

Role of USG:

The USG has oversight of all Honor Committee member appointments in the form of needing to vote to approve their candidacy. One representative from USG sits on the selection committee for new members, and for internal leadership transitions.

This Selection:

8 Applicants:

3 Female

5 Male

Selection Committee Composition:

Dallas Nan '16 (Chair)

Aleksandra Czulak '17 (USG President)

Carolyn Liziewski '18 (Clerk)

Charlie Jacobson '16

Justin Ziegler '16

Matthew Silberman '17

Angela Hillsman '18

Applicant Selected:

Micah Herskind '19

Micah was an extremely strong candidate who applied for the freshman position in the fall of this year. His experience serving on his high school's Honor Committee and his ability to expertly analyze the case study presented in the interview give us a high amount of faith in his ability to add a diverse perspective to the committee while being able to execute the duty at a high level.

The Princeton Perspective Project Student Advisory Board Appointments

Committee Chair: Mary Heath Manning

Date: February 12th, 2016

Application and Selection Process:

- Only one member of our committee is stepping down because she is a second semester senior, so we only have one spot that officially needs to be filled. That being said, we would like to add 1-2 additional member to each of our three committees. This means that we hope to accept 5 or 6 new members to the committee. We would also like one to be in a web/tech-specific position.

Total Applications Received: 15 applications, 9 interviewed

Nominations:

Returning Members

Lauren Berger (2017, Neuroscience)

- Lauren is a member of Globemed and also tutors independently in Princeton.
- Lauren has been an enthusiastic member of PPP for the past year and brings a huge smile to all of our events. She is wonderful at outreach and has gotten the most people involved in PPP of all members of the Student Advisory Board

Matt Blazejewski (2017, East Asian Studies)

- Matt is a member of the Mental Health Initiative Board, the Publicity Director on the Executive Board of Theatre Intime, the Director of April 2016 Harvey, Produced by Theatre Intime, a Student Supervisor at Firestone Library, a member of the Edwards Arts Collective, and a Mathey Peer Chinese Language Tutor/Co-Host of Weekly Chinese Tables
- As is made evident through the list above, Matt is extremely involved on campus, but manages to give his all to many activities. His creativity has played a crucial role in PPP's progress

Deana Hamlin (2017, Woodrow Wilson)

- Deana is on the Pace Council for Civic Values and in Off the Record A Cappella Group. She is also a Dormitory Assistant, a McGraw Tutor, Community Service Chair, Community House Tutor, and a Community Action Leader.
- Deana is now one of the two founding members of PPP, and her vast knowledge of the project and its history is truly invaluable.

Princeton, NJ 08544
www.princetonusg.com

Tobi Jegede (2018, Electrical Engineering)

- Tobi is a member of Off the Record and an outreach chair for the Princeton Hidden Minority Council
- Tobi has done such good work on PPP in the past year. She has worked particularly well on designing promotional materials for PPP's events.

Nancy Wu (2018, EEB)

- Nancy is on the Varsity Women's Lightweight Crew team, an Outdoor Action Leader, a member of the Marketing Committee for Campus Recreation, and a tutor for Princeton Tutoring
- Nancy is so enthusiastic about everything PPP-related. She has utilized her position as the only student-athlete on the team to help with the Behind This Smile event targeting athletes on campus.

New Members:

Ellie Fu (2018, History)

- Ellie is on the Ultimate Frisbee team. She is also on the Outdoor Action Program Committee, and the president of the SVC Cherry Tree Club.
- Ellie seems extremely enthusiastic about PPP and talked about how she utilized the website as a freshman during difficult times. She seems well-versed in all things PPP has done over the past year.

Brighie Leach (2019, Economics)

- Brighie is on the Varsity Cross Country and Track team.
- Brighie is very hardworking and dedicated to what she does. She brings an interesting perspective to the team as a varsity athlete and talked about how PPP has helped her with some of her struggles related to running.

Angela Kim (2019, Anthropology)

- Angela works with WPRB as the News and Culture Producer and the Digital Media Director.
- Angela also is very familiar with PPP and is excited to utilize her writing skills to help PPP with its messaging and publicity.

Kevin Bradicich (2018, COS B.S.E)

- Kevin is on the igniteSTEM Conference team as part of the Entrepreneurship Club. He is also VP of Open Source at Princeton and a member of the Human Values Forum.
- Kevin will be helping with our website and other technological projects. He seems excited to find something on campus that allows him to feel like he is contributing to Princeton in ways outside of academics.

Kevin Pendo (2019, Neuroscience)

- Kevin tutors for SVC imPACT.
- Kevin is committed to creating positive change on Princeton's campus, and is very passionate about PPP's mission.

Natalya Rahman (2019, Politics or Mathematics)

- Natalya works with Princeton Social Innovation on TEDxPrincetonU. She also works for CONTACT Princeton and Princeton University Dining Services.
- Natalya is enthusiastic about bringing the perspective of an international student to the PPP team and wants to use her personal experiences of struggle to help others on campus.

 - Alison Herman '19
 - Nadeem Demian '19
 - Christin Park '18
 - Julie Newman '18
 - Shana Solomon '18
 - Layla Varkey '19
 - Nazik Elmekki '19
- We are planning to meet for the first time as a full board this upcoming week to discuss goals, initiatives, programming and policy, and plan of action going forward.
 - Reflect on Mental Health Week 2016 (strengths, weaknesses, insights, improvements)
 - Year-long programming (on a weekly basis)
 - Social media campaign in March (more informative)
- We are planning an MHI retreat this month to get to know each other on the board better.
- We will be having a policy debrief at a meeting so that both returning and new members can be up-to-date on Princeton's policies re: mental health.

Academics Committee Appointments

Committee Chair: Shannon Osaka

Application and Selection Process:

- I've been looking specifically for freshmen and sophomores interested in working on improving academic advising and the freshman fall experience.
- I received 18 applications. I interviewed the top 7 (out of 10) students who placed the Academics Committee as their first choice for committee members. Many of the applications were of similar quality so I used their preference for the committee to shrink down the number of potential members.

Total Applications Received: 18 applications, 7 interviewed

Nominations:

Returning Members (if any)

Andy Loo (2016, MAT) -> serves on COCS
Connor Pfeiffer (2018, HIS) -> serves on COCS
Chris Yu (2017, POL) -> CUAFA
Boriana Gjura (2018, MAT) -> CUAFA, will run events
Erika Kirgios (2017, COS) -> COCS
Samantha Zalewska (2019, ECO) -> frosh/soph advising
Joseph Carlstein (2018, MAT) -> lecture videos
Joan Thompson (2016, ECO) -> COCS
Ethan Marcus (2018, WWS) -> calendar reform

New Members:

Shannon Oscher (2019, CBE)

- One of the best candidates I saw. Very dedicated to improving the advising experience for freshmen and sophomores, great communicator and focused.

Kathy Fan (2019, COS)

Undergraduate Student Government
204 Frist Campus Center
Princeton, NJ 08544
www.princetonusg.com

- Great ideas about networking PAAs, updating easypce.com. Can serve on the task force for improving freshman and sophomore advising

Matthew Lucas (2018, ECO)

- Wants to re-evaluate the impacts of freshman fall and the grading policy through freshmen fall.

Sarah Varghese (2019, ECO)

- Again networking PAAs, improving overall advising training.

Joao Oliviera (2019, COM)

- Wants to work on improving BSE experience in freshman fall and the general advising experience, enhance interdisciplinary options

University Student Life Committee Appointments

Committee Chair: Jenny Zhang

Application and Selection Process:

- Goal: Discover people who are truly passionate and motivated to be on committee; weed out people who applied just to apply
- Asked interviewee very specific questions and counter-arguments to understand their logic and way of thinking
- Interview questions:
 - Tell me about yourself, how your friends would describe you, and why you would be a good fit for the committee.
 - If we were to go back to the BJI protest, do you think USLC should have interfered? If so, what should the committee have done and why?
 - What is a past USLC event and how would you improve it?
 - Tell me a very specific change USLC should look at, such as bathroom codes - not something broad such as “we need more diversity.”
 - What is a one of your weaknesses? What is another one?
- 7 previous members will not be returning due to study abroad and time management

Total Applications Received: 13 applications, 9 given interviews

Nominations:

Returning Members (if any)

Scarlett Grabowska (2017, Politics)

- Other Activities: SPEAR (Students for Prison Education and Reform), Campus Dining Student Advisory Board, Dream Team (an club focused on immigration issues)
- Worked on improving Independent Students Guide Website and Safety Walk Project

Samuel Vilchez (2019, Woodrow Wilson)

New Members:

Katherine Park (2019, Woodrow Wilson)

- Other Activities: PUO (violin), Butler College Council
- Looked into What Matters survey; wants to investigate using meal swipes at restaurants and off-campus places; believes we should increase restaurant week more as a starting point
- Wants to look into the issues of high Pequod and U-Store prices
- Seems to have a very logical way of looking at issues (ex: problem with extending meal swipes to off-campus dining options = meal swipes and proxies would serve like a debit card; may not necessarily be profitable for restaurants; discouraging them to adopt this method of payment)
- Fast thinking (ex: believe Late Meal Around the World could be improved by having students dress up in cultural attire, showcase cultural artwork and performances)

Alison Herman (2019, Neuroscience; Latin American Studies)

- Other Activities: PFA, Sociology RA, Princeton University Art Museum Student Advisory Board, Norman Lab
- Personal experience with mental health problems
- Wants to look into expanding special needs housing; believes special needs housing should not be limited to doubles
- Provided unique answers to interview questions (ex: USG should have had a hot chocolate stand during the BJL protest; USG would not be taking a stance, but simply caring for fellow students and supporting the right to voice your own opinion)
- Wants to investigate and promote McGraw Learning Consultations, which allows students to bring in schedules and talk about time management and finding the right balance; important for students recovering from depression
- Interested in working with the Women's Center to promote women leadership in student organizations
- Overall, appears to be a very genuine, passionate, and caring person

Andre Xiong (2019, COS)

- Other Activities: Men's Lightweight Rowing, Engineers Without Borders (Peru Tech Team Leader)
- Wants to look into more building space for co-ops, such as the planned 7th residential college; this would have added benefit of exposing co-ops to underclassmen

Undergraduate Student Government

204 Frist Campus Center

Princeton, NJ 08544

www.princetonusg.com

- Wants to examine eating club alternatives - look into additional events catered to independents and co-op members, especially on eating club event days such as formals
- Would provide unique perspective as a varsity athlete and engineer
- Was a Civil Air Patrol cadet officer during high school
- Provided different perspective to interview questions (ex: USLC should examine points BJL outlined to see how they influence other minority groups)

Anna Russo (2019, Ecology and Evolutionary Biology / Global Health Policy)

- Other Activities: Princeton Hidden Minority Council - Executive Board / Graduation Chair, Health in Princeton Schools - Volunteer, Advising Fellow
- Interested in Mental Health issues; wants to publicize counseling services and stigmatize counseling as weak
- Very enthusiastic and down to earth; seems like someone who is willing to put in the effort; takes criticism well

Peter Koczanski (2019, Economics)

- Other Activities: Debate, Student Health Advisory Board, EClub Careers Team
- Wants to look into expanding the Davis International Center programs and better integration between internationals and non-internationals. Suggests that each international student be peered with a domestic student to provide an additional peer resource to reduce cultural shock
- Advocate the importance of micro reminders and nudges to promote healthy living among students
- Interested in pursuing more policy based programs on USLC
- Provides unique perspective as an international student

Michael Zhou (2019, Molecular Biology; Neuroscience)

- Other Activities: Manna, Chinese Students Association, Princeton Gap Year Network
- Stressed the lack of treatment for students diagnosed with mental illnesses; wants to increase conversation and awareness
- Has a younger brother who is autistic and became stronger and more understanding as a result
- Seems steady; not the too talkative type; expressed strong interest in being part of USG
